COACH GORDON GOLSON

RED VICKERY

TED CLAYTON—SENIOR—CENTER
A standout on the Atmore eleven. Ted has been one of south Alabama's top-ranking centers for the past two seasons. He was the efficient captain of the 1951 season.

LEON AKINS—SENIOR—END
A great all-round performer who is rugged on defense, fast down under punts, and an excellent pass receiver. This was Leo's second season as a Blue Devil standout. He was an alternate captain.

BOB NICHOLS—SENIOR—GUARD
Nichols is an outstanding defensive guard who can also handle the tough guard blocking assignment on offense. He is an aggressive, smart, all-round performer.

Football

JOHN GRAHAM—SENIOR—CENTER

Even though John was not a first-stringer, he made enough quarters to win a varsity letter. John was noted particularly for his defensive play. As he is a senior, he will not be back next year to help the Blue Devils. He will be missed.

OLEN NALL—SENIOR—END

Easily the best defensive end on the team. Olen broke into the starting lineup. Big, fast, and rangy, he was able to pull down many difficult passes.

JAMES NORRIS—JUNIOR—END

Regular as a Blue Devil for the past two seasons and earned third straight varsity letter. Good pass receiver and rugged blocker. "Slim" was also a standout on defense.

BUSTER BEASLEY—SENIOR—TACKLE

One of south Alabama's top tackles, Buster has held down a regular linesman's job with the Blue Devils for two straight seasons. Big and fast, he operates on both offense and defense.

CHARLES SELLARS—SOPHOMORE BACK

Although plagued with injuries all season, Charles was a standout in the backfield. A great defender against passes, he operates from the left halfback spot on offense. He was alternate captain this season.

Football

JULIAN CASSITY—JUNIOR—BACK

Because of a leg injury, he missed some games. He returned as a workhorse in the backfield. He was also one of our best.

CLYDE BATLEY—JUNIOR—GUARD

Earning his first varsity letter for the Blue Devils. Clyde played in every game this season and has been a defensive standout in the line. He was also an offensive standout who will be counted on again next year.

PELLAR LOWREY—JUNIOR—GUARD

Although he was not a regular, Pellar was a dependable player in the line who had excellent performances all the time. He always seemed to be in the opponent's way. He will be counted on heavily next year.

JAMES KENNEDY—SOPHOMORE BACK

Double duty star at Atmore, playing great defensive ball and in the Blue Devils' single wing. A safety man and excellent pass defender.

CLAUDE MOYE—FRESHMAN—GUARD

A standout for the Blue Devils. Move was noted for his defense. A hustling all-round performer, Claude never lost his head when excitement was high.

Football

TED FRENCH -JUNIOR—BACK

Defensive back and also used on offense. Ted played headsup football all season. He is noted for his ferocious blocking and tackling and, luckily for ECHS, has another year with the Blue Devils.

CARL BARNETT—JUNIOR—TACKLE

Carl, a first rate tackle, saw much action this season and was valuable in opening up holes in the line for the backs. Since Carl is also a defensive standout, he will be heavily counted on next year.

BOBBY JAYE -JUNIOR—END

Although he was not a regular, Bobby made enough quarters to earn his second varsity letter. He played good ball and has developed into an outstanding player.

GLENN JERNIGAN—FRESHMAN BACK

Not getting into the game much didn't stop Glenn from staying out for practice. He received valuable experience this year in the backfield. He will be back next season to make a strong bid for top honors.

ADOLPH SUTTON—SOPHOMORE BACK

The lightest man on the squad, "Doc" was the regular offensive quarterback. He makes up in ability what he lacks in size. "Doc" was considered one of the best blockers on the squad.

Football

ALLAN DAVIS -FRESHMAN--BACK

back in the backfield and was praised for his defensive play

DON KELLY--JUNIOR--TACKLE

With the experience gained this year, Don should prove to be an asset to next year's team. He is a hard working, conscientious athlete. Don was used mostly on defense this season.

BILLY BROUGHTON--FRESHMAN-- BACK

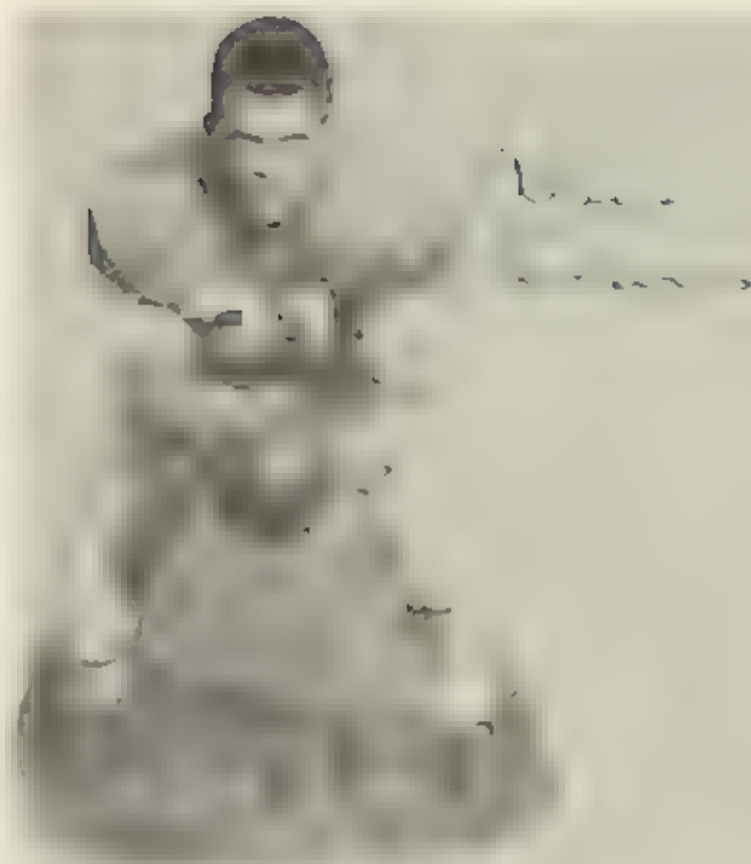

Since we had so many backs, Billy did not see any action this season. The training he received in practice will help him in his future years as a Blue Devil.

JAMES GULSBY--FRESHMAN--GUARD

Although James did not see much action, he gained valuable experience. He was used mostly on defense.

LAGRANDE ETHRIDGE--FRESHMAN-- GUARD

Because of his size and lack of experience "Cannonball" didn't see any action. In his first full season, he gained valuable experience.
